16th Latin Summer School

January 18-22, 2010

Letter of Parental Consent

Dear Parent,

We are delighted that your child would like to attend the 2010 Latin Summer School. Here is some information to enable you to understand what is involved.

The aim of the LSS is to foster interest and knowledge of Latin and the ancient world. It is not specifically designed for school students, but for attendees of all ages above 14. It is not a 'camp' and does not aim to teach School syllabus texts.

In addition, we expect students to be mature enough to look after themselves during breaks. They will not be supervised at such times. They are also required to behave appropriately during class, and in a manner that is conducive to the enjoyment of all involved, most of whom are adults. As you will understand, adults can feel resentful of inattentive or disruptive behaviour.

We believe that, with appropriate expectations, your child will enjoy the Latin Summer School and help contribute to the enjoyment of others.

I agree to my child attending the 2010 Latin Summer School on the above terms.
